Another bad thing from the same unfortunate stomuch, is the assertion that the statement is false that the Times "was cant seat in the house on this occasion we owned by a candidate for the United States will regard it as a repreach upon the pubfleuate," and that the Union was "compelled to retract" that statement. The bitterest drop in our medicine cup, the steamboat Robert Moore, spr27-3t, proves to be the exposure of the fact, that while the Times is seeking the public Will sell this morning, at 10 o'clock, a large stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods printing, as a sheet loyal par recriticac and a supporter of the men and measures which our General Assembly sustains; another paper, the Press, is the paper that the goods will be sold. has been actually doing work supposed by Tox C. Churk, Auctioneer, the Legislature to have been given to the Times. At that office printing for the Legislature, obtained by the Times, and estensibly for the Times, has been done; and that paper, which is not a supporter of the men and measures above-mentioned, is one that the Times itself has bitterly stigmstired and denounced as an opponent of the cause, of which itself claimed to be the New York prices. champion. So murky dark, so gall-like bitter, is the discharge from the affected portion of the stricken Times, on this subject, that, like a New Orleans nurse, when a yellow fover patient has the black vomit, we tremble for the irascible patient in his deposit within the interior.

The sufferer has a pervous attack also, sick and wholly cross schoolboy, venting his ill-humor on the play-ground, by slapping and pinching others, who would not be as snarlish and as crabbed as himself, until, provoked beyond endurance, one of them has "clanted a left hander" on his own face. The young surly-brow starts off howling to the school room, yelling as he runs: "You hit me, I'll go and tell toucher, and he'll lick you." So the Times whim been snapping and anarling at the Unton, and when it gets a deserved correction, it will run and tell justice! Run, Times! put
